

Aging Well in Watertown:

Housing Forum

Thursday, May 4, 2017

Watertown Free Public Library

5:30 to 6:15 pm – Light refreshments & resource fair

6:15 to 8:30 pm – Panel Presentations and Q&A

Thinking of moving? Downsizing? Modifying? Learn what's available for housing in Watertown as we, and our loved ones, age.

TOPICS

- Public Housing Options in Watertown – Brian Costello, Executive Director, Watertown Housing Authority
- Affordable Housing, Private & Nonprofit Options – Jennifer Van Campen, Executive Director, MetroWest Collaborative Development
- Senior Living Communities – Andrea Adams, Senior Planner, Town of Watertown Community Development & Planning
- Staying in Your Home – Jackie Dobson, Access & Design Resource Specialist, Founder, SOLUTIONS for Accessibility
- In-home Services – To Be Announced, Springwell

SPONSORS

Town of Watertown • Watertown Council on Aging • Metro West Collaborative Development • Watertown for All Ages • Watertown Housing Authority • Live Well Watertown • Marshall Home Fund • Watertown Community Foundation • Springwell

The following organizations will be present at resource tables to answer your questions and provide materials about housing options for older Watertown residents.

Brigham House
Metro West Collaborative Development
Mt. Auburn Hospital
Solutions for Accessibility
Springwell
The Residence
Tufts Health Care Foundation
Watertown for All Ages
Watertown Housing Authority
Watertown Council on Aging/Senior Center